TESTIMONIALS

GLENN MUDGE

I wouldn't say I was reluctant to attend a Bootcamp for the first time, it was more I think when I was ready to attend. The old saying of when the student is ready the teacher shall appear rings true I think in my case. Since joining VIP Program my work life is definitely more structured and I am surrounding myself with successful people. I am trying to focus on my strengths and get other people to help out with my weaker areas. I would recommend B4B to a business owner that is in need of direction and focus. Someone who feels they are stuck in a job, their business, and they can't see the forest for the trees.

TROY WISEMAN

Joining the B4B VIP program in 2013 was invaluable when starting up my consulting business. The speakers and sessions provide you with great ideas you can implement into your own business, plus you get to work and "bounce ideas" off with like minded business people from the program, I have no doubt the investment has been well worth it.
